THE SLOCUM REPORT

President Roosevelt Submits a Letter
Commenting on the Matter

DAMAGING REVELATIONS MADE

Commission Finds the Burning of the New York Excursion Steamer and the Loss of Over 900 Lives Due Solely to Wretched Equipment and Poor
Personnel of Crew.

Washington, Special.—The report of the United States commission on the investigation upon the disaster to the steamer General Slocum, appointed June 23, last, by the then Secretary of Commerce and Labor George B. Cortelyou, and consisting of Lawrence O. Murray, Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor; Herbert Knox Smith, deputy commissioner of corporations; George Uhler, supervising inspector general of the steamboat inspection service; General John M. Wilson, United States Army, retired, and Commander Cameron McR. Winslow, United States navy, was made public Sunday.

In connection with the important findings of the commissions presented in the report, President Roosevelt, to whom the report was submitted, has written a letter to Secretary Victor H. Metcalf, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, briefly summarizing the report and directing him to carry into effect the recommendations of the commission. He also directs the Robert S. Rodie, supervising inspector of the second district steamboat inspection service, and James A. Dumont and Thomas H. Barrett, local inspectors in charge of the port of New York, be discharged from the service, the commission holding them directly responsible for the laxity of the steamboat inspection to which the Slocum disaster was directly attributed.

Commissioner Uhler dissents to that portion of the report which places the responsibility on the supervision of the second district, Robert S. Rodie, otherwise, he concurs with the commission. Appended to the report is a report from the Department of Justice and criminal proceedings connected with the disaster and the life preservers cases.

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEW.

The President's letter to Secretary Metcalf follows:

"White House, Washington, D. C., Oct. 12, 1904.

"My Dear Sir: I have received the report of the Commission of the United States on the investigation of the General Slocum disaster and the report of the Department of Justice on October 12th, recapitulating what has been done by the department of Justice in connection with the criminal proceedings taken against various individuals because of their connection with the disaster. I send you herewith both reports. Punitive action by the government can, of course, only take two forms; that of legal proceedings against those either within or without the service. It appears that the Department of Justice has already secured indictments against the master and captain of the Slocum and against the managing directors of the Knickerbocker Steamboat Company, to which company the steamer belonged, for misconduct, negligence, and inattention to duty by the captain, and for aiding and abetting therein by the managing directors. Furthermore, the Department of Justice has secured indictments against Henry Lundberg and John W. Fleming, the assistant inspectors of the steamboat inspection service, who actually inspected the Slocum, for fraud, misconduct, and inattention to duty. Lundberg had been appointed merely on probation in the service and has been dropped. There can, of course, be no further action about Fleming until his trial has been finished, although it does not follow that an acquittal would prevent the Department from discharging him from the service. In addition, the Department of Justice has secured the indictment of the manager and three employees of the Nonpareil Cork works, of Camden, N. J., for putting upon the market compressed cork blocks for use in making life preservers, each of which blocks contained in its center a bar of iron weighing several ounces.

This last offense was of so heinous a character that it is difficult to comprehend upon it with proper self-restraint. It appears that the national legislature has never enacted a law providing in its terms for the punishment of this particular species of infamy, doubtless because it never entered the head of any man that so gross an infamy could be perpetrated. I suggest that you report this whole matter to Congress, transmitting these two reports, and at that time calling special attention to the need of imposing an adequate penalty for the making or selling of defective life-saving appliances.

REMOVAL OF DELINQUENT OFFICIALS.

"So much for what the Department of Justice has done in reference to the disaster. But in addition to the men put on trial by the Department of Justice, action should be taken against those employees whose responsibility for the state of things producing the accident has been brought into the re-

A CRAZY MAN'S ACT

The Son of Judge Pritchard Commits Suicide

FIRST KILLS A BROTHER OFFICER

A Son of United States Judge Pritchard, While Temporarily Insane, Shoots and Kills Second Lieutenant Fred L. Dean and Then Takes His Own Life—Both Young Men Officers of the Thirteenth Cavalry—Deplored Tragedy Occurs at Camp Stotsenburg, Near Manila, in the Philippine Islands.

Manila, By Cable.—Second Lieutenant William D. Pritchard, of the Thirteenth Cavalry, Monday killed Second Lieutenant Fred L. Dean of the same cavalry, then committed suicide. The tragedy occurred at Camp Stotsenburg, near Manila, in the Philippine Islands. Pritchard was a native of North Carolina and was appointed from that State. He was 25 years old. Lieutenant Dean was 27 years old and a native of Texas.

Washington, Special.—The War Department received a dispatch from Manila this morning confirming the report that Lieutenant William D. Pritchard had murdered Lieutenant Dean by shooting him through the head, then he committed suicide. Lieutenant Pritchard is a son of Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, of Marshall, N. C., formerly Senator from that State and at present Federal Judge for the Circuit of Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina. According to the records on file at the Department, Pritchard bore an excellent reputation as a soldier and an officer. Dean's home was at Athens, Texas.

Six Die in Tent Fire.

New York, Special.—Six lives were lost and nearly a score of persons were injured and the lives of more than 100 others were endangered in an early morning tent house fire in Williamsburg section of Brooklyn. With one exception all the dead are children. Incendiaries are thought to have been responsible for the fatal fire, and the fact that while the flames were at work on the blaze alarms were turned in for two other fires in the immediate neighborhood. The dead:

Bella Glass, 29 years.

Henry Glass, 2 years.

Ida Salkowsky, 6 years.

Benjamin, Gusko, Charles Warkolsky, aged 11, 14 and 3 years.

The seriously injured:

Harry Glass, 6 years.

Abraham Warkolsky, 9 years.

Minnie Warkolsky, 5 years.

Max Rabinowitz, 6 years.

Sarah Rabinowitz, 4 years.

Twelve families, comprising 120 persons, were asleep in the big five-story double tenement house when the flames were discovered. When the alarm was sounded through the house and women and some of the latter with babies in their arms, others with little boys and girls clinging to their night clothes of their mothers, ran to the hallway. There they were met with the great clouds of choking smoke while the flames were rapidly closing in about them. Before the firemen arrived police reserves from a nearby station had rescued many persons from the blazing building. When the firemen came, human lines were formed from the fire escapes and the screaming women and children were lowered to the pavement. The flames burst from windows all about them and the clothes of many of them were burned from their bodies. Their hair was singed and their bodies burned.

6,000 Miners Return to Work.

Knoxville, Tenn., Special.—Operators and miners of District Number 18, United Mine Workers of America, held another joint conference here Saturday. The miners having agreed to accept the seven per cent. reduction proposed by the operators, signed the scale and the 6,000 miners now idle will go to work Monday.

Against North Carolina.

Washington, Special.—The United States Supreme Court denied the motion of counsel on behalf of the State of North Carolina for rehearing in the case of the State of South Dakota vs. the State of North Carolina, decided during the last term of the court favorable to South Dakota. The case involved the validity of North Carolina's guaranty of certain railroad bonds donated to South Dakota for the use of the University of South Dakota. The court ordered the sale of bonds, and this action renders the decision final. The decision has the effect of validating other North Carolina bonds of similar character.

St. Petersburg Reassured.

St. Petersburg, By Cable.—The news from the front is more reassuring, from the Russian standpoint. The situation is still regarded as being critical, but General Kuropatkin is apparently holding the Japanese firmly on his center and right wing, even having re-crossed the Shakhe river, and while there are rumors of an extensive Japanese flank movement both on the east and on the west, there is no evidence that they are actually occurring.

A TRAGEDY AT DAVIDSON

The Victim the Slayer's Brother-in-Law and Former Partner in Business.

Occurrences of Interest in Various Parts of the State.

A special from Wayneville Monday said that Tom Love, the negro who several months ago entered the residence and sleeping apartments of Mrs. Rogers, at that place, was convicted in Haywood Superior Court Saturday of burglary in the first degree and sentenced by Judge Long to hang on Friday, October 23. If Love explodes his crime on the gallows it will be the second hanging that has ever occurred in the county of Haywood. One Saturday night, several months ago, Tom Love, a negro about 50 years of age, entered the residence of Mrs. Rogers, and when the lady awoke she found the man in her room. The negro escaped, but was subsequently arrested and placed in jail.

A special from Elizabethtown says that the Clarkton negroes charged with assault and murder, on trial in the Superior Court there, who narrowly escaped lynching in Wilmington, three weeks ago, arrived safely from the penitentiary at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning, having been held at the State Prison for safe-keeping since their crime. The grand jury returned a true bill against each the same morning, and early in the afternoon they were arraigned. Neil Sellers, one of the negroes, still declares that he is innocent and the other, Dave Brown, says he knows nothing further than that Sellers left the camp. He appears to be excited while Sellers is perfectly quiet.

In an interview with State Auditor Dixon, who has charge of pension matters, he was asked about the number of pensions on the new list and replied that there were of the first-class 84, who will receive $60 a year; of the second class, 293 who will receive $45; of the third class, 551, who get $35; fourth class, whose annual allowance is $14. There are 4,550 widows, who receive $14. The total number of pensions is 13,316, an increase of 1,318 over last year. The largest increase in any one year was in 1902, when the new law went into effect, and it was over 2,500. Last year the increase was only 715.

Superintendent Archibald Johnson, of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville, reports that there are now twenty cases of typhoid fever in the orphanage hospital and as fast as one patient is discharged there are others to take their places. There have been forty-eight cases and two deaths up to the present. He says they have been unable as yet to discover the cause for the epidemic. He says the institution is in sore need of $10,000 for sewerage plant and other improvements.

There were set for the present term of Durham Superior Court, which convened on last Monday and for two Tuesday forenoon sessions. Up to Tuesday forenoon cases had been tried, and five divorces granted. Monday morning one case was tried, which was disposed of in less than ten minutes' time. Up to the sixth one there had not been a single contested case.

Richmond officers went to Raleigh Wednesday after John Sterling and Walter Jenkins, who turn out to be the car robbers and not postoffice robbers. John O. Donnell, the man arrested, was also held, at the request of the Richmond officers. Sterling says he has been stealing and selling railway property ever since he was a boy.

The State grants a charter to the Bedoune Manufacturing Company, of Hillsboro, to make yarns and cloth and knit goods of cotton, wool or silk, the capital stock being $125,000, and the principal stockholders S. S. Strunk and T. M. Webb. It is the second cotton mill chartered this week.

The State has chartered the Elwood Hotel, at High Point, with a capital stock of $125,000. J. Elwood Cox, is the principal stockholder.

Revenue officers made a raid near La Grange, Lenoir county, before daylight Tuesday morning, and captured a 150-gallon distillery. The moonshiners and their friends blew horns in warning in all directions.

A charter is issued to the Wadesboro Live Stock Co., of Wadesboro. The capital is $50,000 and the principal stockholders are J. A. Leak, W. B. Kerr and W. H. Little.

No More Roundabouts. The passing of the negro as a "roundabout," marking an epoch in steamboating on the Mississippi, was witnessed by a large crowd of people, who saw sixty white men, sent here from Western and Northern cities, to work at the steamboat landing in place of the colored men. For years the steamboat men have suffered from the strikes of "roundabouts," who have been in the habit of waiting until a steamboat was loaded and ready to leave, and then refuse to ship unless their wages were raised. The steamboat interests recently decided to try the experiment of doing away with negro labor and hiring white men, and the first contingent went to work.

Plead Not Guilty. Gainesville, Fla., Special.—In the case against W. M. Holloway, candidate for superintendent of public instruction on the State Democratic ticket, who is charged with criminal libel, Holloway's attorneys moved to quash the new indictment. This was overruled. Holloway pleaded not guilty and announced himself ready for trial. The State asked for a continuance until October 24. The trial has been set for October 20.

RUSSIANS STILL RUN

Japanese Holding Out Well in Chase After Their Army

BLOODSHED GROWS APPALLING

One of the Bloodiest Battles in History Still Raging South of Mukden, the Russian Advance Having Been Converted into a Stubbornly Fought Retreat—Whole Regiments Moved Down on Both Sides.

The main armies of Russia and Japan in Manchuria continue to be engaged in a desperate struggle for supremacy south of Mukden. On both sides there have been such losses in killed and wounded as mark the contest for one of the losses in killed and wounded. Already the losses at Liao Yang have been approximated and the indications are that they will be exceeded, that of the Russians up to noon of October 14 being estimated at 15,000. The Russian advance has been converted into a stubbornly fought retreat. This result, according to the Russians, is still to be determined. Reports from the Russian front wing are lacking, leaving room for question if part of General Kuropatkin's army is not in worse extremity than the center and right were at any stage of the battle. On both sides the soldiers have shown the utmost tenacity and bravery and whole regiments have gone down before the fire of the enemy. In official circles in St. Petersburg there is a disposition to argue that even should General Kuropatkin be obliged to retire upon Mukden his position will be quite as favorable as it was when the order to advance was given on October 6; and that on the other hand the Japanese powers of future resistance will have been materially weakened. There is no news from Port Arthur.

Gloom in St. Petersburg. The great feeling of concern which exists in circles in the Russian capital by no means here, before the reports of coming disaster pervading the general public which is including in the deepest pessimism. In the absence of official news, the public is being fed on the wildest rumors of defeat suffered by General Kuropatkin. The fact that no word regarding the battle has been officially given out only confirms the popular fear. The explanation offered that it was a holiday does not suffice to allay the apprehension.

General Kuropatkin's report of the result of the day's operations has reached Emperor Nicholas at Tsarskoe Selo, but it had not been returned here before the general commission, which set out only 9 o'clock, had adjourned. The Emperor himself is represented as being bitterly disappointed, and spending hours with his cabinet studying out, with the help of his military aide, the reports of the battle. The general staff, however, by no means desponds. Though admitting that the tide in the last two days has been against General Kuropatkin, the general staff says the battle is not yet over, and the report of any event there is no question of a rout.

The depressing feature of the situation is that everyone is willing to believe the worst. Thus, reports from Tokyo and elsewhere that the Japanese are advancing and that the Russians are falling back are accepted with faith based upon the previous Russian retreat.

Naturally many reports are current as to the general staff's movement for the relief of Port Arthur, and that if Kuropatkin's star has set, the Japanese are advancing and that the Russians are falling back are accepted with faith based upon the previous Russian retreat.

As to the general staff's movement for the relief of Port Arthur, and that if Kuropatkin's star has set, the Japanese are advancing and that the Russians are falling back are accepted with faith based upon the previous Russian retreat.

At the same time, the supporters of General Kuropatkin argue that, whatever may be the direct outcome of the past few days' fighting, it is not likely to be an irretrievable disaster to the Russian army.

Dispatches from the front give a vivid picture of the desperate character of the fighting along the whole line. The Russian plainmen have been again forced to engage in hill fighting, which is little if their repeated attacks upon almost inaccessible positions, which leave no question of the resolution and gallantry of the Russian forces. Guns have been captured and recaptured in fierce hand-to-hand conflicts.

The latest word directly from the field of battle is the Mukden dispatch to the Associated Press, in which it is stated that 15,000 Russians had been wounded, which, together with the day's casualties, would make the total probably exceed the figures of Liao Yang, and make the light rank as one of the bloodiest battles in history.

"LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE."

GOVERNOR AYCOCK STATED IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS THAT UNDER, AND THEREFORE BY IMPLICATION IN CONSEQUENCE OF, FUSION RULE "LAWLESSNESS WALKED THE STATE LIKE A PESTILENCE, CRIME STALKED ABOARD AT NOON-DAY, SLEEP LAY DOWN WITH ALARM AND THE SOUND OF THE FISTOL WAS MORE FREQUENT THAN THE SONG OF THE MOCKING BIRD." HOW STANDS THE CASE TO-DAY GOVERNOR? HAVEN'T THE ACTS OF THREE RED SHIRT LEGISLATURES AND MORE THAN TWO YEARS OF YOUR OWN BENEFICENT RULE PASSED INTO HISTORY SINCE YOU PROCLAIMED THE FOREGOING? WHEN YOU ARE CAVORTING OVER THE STATE WHOOPING FOR EDUCATION AND ROADS DON'T YOU HEAR OF MORE CRIMES BEING COMMITTED IN NORTH CAROLINA THAN EVER BEFORE AND DO YOU CONTINUE TO ATTRIBUTE THESE TO FUSION RULE?

REAPING THE WHIRLWIND.
"CRIMES SEEMS TO BE GREATLY ON THE INCREASE IN THIS STATE. NOT A DAY PASSES THAT THE NEWS-PAPERS DO NOT CHRONICLE A HOMICIDE, A BURGLARY OR SOME OTHER SERIOUS VIOLATION OF THE LAW."
—Wilmington Messenger (Democratic).

GORMAN AND THE NEGRO.

The following special was sent out from Baltimore under date of October 7th:

"Senator Gorman and National Chairman Taggart have planned to go to great lengths to capture the negro vote in Indiana, New York and West Virginia. They have established national negro headquarters in Broadway, New York, about ten blocks from the building occupied by the national committee. For reasons which they deem sufficient the editor of the Baltimore Evening Post has refused to employ of the committee to say away from national headquarters."

"Prominent colored men from a half dozen States are now employed at this branch headquarters in Broadway. A weekly campaign paper, called the 'Emancipator,' is being published there, a great deal of 'literature' is being sent out to the colored voters in the doubtful States in the North and travelling emissaries are going among the colored men in Indiana, New York and West Virginia. Senator Gorman, it is learned here, is directly in charge of the campaign among the Northern negroes."

Now, doesn't that present a pretty picture? Gorman in charge of the negro Democratic headquarters in New York that is sending out negro literature in the doubtful States, while at the same time this same Gorman is having laws passed in Maryland to disfranchise the negro. And why? Simply because he can't get them to vote the Democratic ticket in Maryland.

And now the news comes from Washington that John L. Williams, the Democratic negro political statesman, of Franklin county, is at Democratic headquarters in Washington City, sending Democratic literature to the negroes of the North and anti-negro literature to the Democrats of the South. And still some of the loud-mouthed, disreputable sheets in this State have the brazen effrontery to yell "nigger" at any one who will vote for Mr. Roosevelt. We do not usually condescend to notice such a thing, but we only wanted to again call your attention to the inconsistency of the Democratic leaders. In the words of "Hon. Thos. Settle: 'Oh! Consistency thou art a jewel! But in the diadem of Democracy thy place is vacant.'"

If your name is not on the re-inscription book you should register before the 29th of this month and then be sure to cast your vote for good government on November 8th.

Hill and the New York show-girls may be for Parker, but the Chicago ministers have declared for President Roosevelt.

Judge Parker says that the present administration has been extravagant and he promises to cut down expenses if he is elected. The question is where would Judge Parker begin his economy? Why didn't he state in what departments he would begin his economy? Would he begin by cutting off the silver and harbor improvements? Would he begin by destroying our navy? Would he begin by cutting off pensions to the old soldiers? He declares that he is in favor of increasing pensions. Judging by the last Democratic president, the Judge would increase our expenses rather than cut them down. During Cleveland's first administration he increased our expenditures $50,000,000 and during his second administration he increased our expenditures 60,000,000 more. The same extravagant crowd that nominated Cleveland, nominated Mr. Parker. Is there any reason to believe that Parker, if elected, would economize any more than Cleveland did?

The next issue of the Caucasian will contain an open letter from ex-Senator Butler on the political situation, discussing the chief points at issue between Roosevelt and Parker. This letter of Senator Butler's is being widely distributed as a campaign document. Besides this article we will have a great deal of other campaign matter in the next issue. Send in your orders at once for extra copies at two cents a copy and distribute them among your friends.

The independent Democrats in Nebraska and Illinois who are not wearing the party yoke are preparing to call another national convention to put out a candidate for President, who will not be controlled by the trust, but who will represent the interests of the people. These Democrats insist that Hill and Belmont and other trust influences nominated Parker, and they propose to let the trusts elect him, if they can.

The French Broad Pilot states that 508 white men are disfranchised in Madison county this year as the result of Democratic laws. And still the Democrats promised you in 1900 that if the amendment was passed not a single white man would be disfranchised. They have fooled you several times before. Will you trust them this time, only to fool you again?

"A Brooklyn Republican orator has discovered that Andrew Jackson and Thomas Jefferson were not Democrats at all, but were Republicans of the Roosevelt type. It is remarkable what curious things we meet when we have no gun."—News and Observer.

Say you have no gun? Where are the red-shirt winchesters of '96 and 1900? Maybe you could borrow one of them.

The Governor of Wyoming, Hon. F. Chatterton, in an interview with a Washington Post reporter, says President Roosevelt is very popular in the West. He adds that, "Even ardent Democrats in our section are for him, and there is no symptom of enthusiasm for the St. Louis ticket."

The New York Herald, a Democratic paper that has been supporting Judge Parker for the presidency, has lost all hopes of electing its candidates and declared in its editorial columns Tuesday that President Roosevelt's election is almost a foregone conclusion.

Another Democratic prohibition paper has come to our desk, bearing a large whiskey advertisement on its editorial page. They advertise whiskey and then tell you how good and old and mellow it is, and then tell you that you shouldn't drink it—especially if you live in the country. Another case of inconsistency.

Hon. Thos. E. Watson says: "It is curious to note that Mr. Parker does not once mention the name of Jefferson, Jackson or any other great Democrat." It is possibly because he does not wish to take their name in vain.

The Shelby Aurora makes the following observation: "Democratic managers propose to make an active bid for the 'independent vote.' They would do better to make a bid for the Democratic vote, a large portion of which seems to be hopelessly alienated."

Some Democrats are expecting a "landslide" this year. We do, too—but it will be for Mr. Roosevelt.

Mr. Parker has not yet stated his position on the negro question.

Roosevelt and Parker and the Negro

Mr. Editor.—I maintain that Judge Parker if elected will invite Booker Washington or some other negro to dine with him at the White House. He has been asked myriads of times by newspapers and orators if he would, and he refuses to say. He has spent his life in a State, holding its highest office for seven years, in which negroes and whites are by laws of Democratic enactment, compelled to attend the same schools. Grover Cleveland, Governor and a Democratic Legislature either enacted or refused to repeal them. Cleveland himself appointed a negro Recorder of Deeds in Washington City, where live 200,000 white people. He appointed a negro minister to Bolivia, a country of white people. The Washington Post of June 16, 1896, which was the next day after his wedding, contained the name of Fred Douglass as one of the wedding guests. D. Cody Herick nominated last week by Democrats for Governor of New York caused a negro to be put on the Democratic ticket for Recorder of Deeds of Albany county, N. Y., and elected him. Booker Washington has been feted and titled by Harvard College, and dined in many fashionable homes in the North and by Queen Victoria in England. Since the hue and cry about his dining with Roosevelt Hon. R. T. Paine, Jr., who has been nominated four times and run twice by the Democrats for Governor of Massachusetts has lately come out and says he has dined with Booker and makes the criticism of Roosevelt for doing so his reason for supporting Roosevelt. Carl Schurz, the most notable man except Cleveland, who is supporting Parker, wrote a long article in McClure's Magazine for January, 1904, in which with terrible sarcasm he ridiculed the chambermaid who wouldn't make up Booker's bed and belittled in most extravagant terms the people who censure Roosevelt for dining with Booker. There are few negroes in the North comparatively, though there are 100,000 in New York State, and nearly that many in Philadelphia; but the Northern people without regard to party see no harm in the President's act. Judge Parker shook hands with a negro in a public place on Sept. 17, 1904, in the presence of a crowd, as reported in a Democratic paper. There are 3,600 negroes in the service at the government in Washington City alone, there by appointment under civil service laws that Democrats and Judge Parker profess to favor. McKinley appointed a great many in the South. Roosevelt has appointed almost none. But the aggressive spirit of the South demanded that Roosevelt appoint none, that he refused to appoint negroes on account of their color. Democrats denounce him in one case for, as they say, breaking the constitution and in another case as admitting, for not breaking the constitution. He could not make a distinction on account of race or color any more than a judge could in trying a case. Minnie Cox, a negro, appointed by McKinley was forced to resign under threat of death after she had served about seven years. Roosevelt refused to appoint another and had the office closed for a year. If you had sworn to uphold and enforce the laws of the United States could you have done less? Crum was opposed solely because he was one-third negro; not on account of unfitness. Could the President reject him on that ground without violating his oath?

In the days of Arthur, Harrison and McKinley no such fight would ever have arisen. In 1877 nobody would ever have supposed the 1904 plank in the Republican platform about reducing representation to be unconstitutional or improper. In that year Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, in a public address, (see Southern Historical Society papers, volume 5 page 25 and 26) mentioned the "Material addition to the political power of the South caused by the enfranchisement of the negro," and after discussing favorably their capacity for suffrage declared "at all events we cannot afford to surrender the political power that depend on their right of suffrage." No Southern Democrat speaks of the subject now except with anathemas. No Northern paper notices or denies the utterly false statement that a negro boy and white child were paraded together at the late Chicago convention, (I say falsely because I was there and know it did not occur), but it has been published myriads of times in the South. Northern Democratic papers from Bryan's Commoner to the New York World beg Southern papers to quit talking negro or they will defeat Parker, while Southern papers and Glenn and Company declare no white man will vote for Roosevelt; that no white man will vote Republican except one who is trying to get office. Sixty-five thousand white men voted Republican in North Carolina in 1902. There are not 2000 Federal officers in the State. If that number shall be nearly doubled this year, as I pray God it may, negro talk will play out as a Democratic asset. Why do they denounce Roosevelt for loving negroes, and praise Cleveland, Herick, Carl Schurz and Parker for the same thing? Here is why: It's the only way they have to carry the Southern States Democratic.

It is a thousand pities that men can yet be found who will read a paper or hear a speaker who talks such stuff. Northern Democratic or Republican association with negroes can not hurt Southern people who do not believe in or practice it. When you cuss Roosevelt and vote for Parker on that account you "jump from the frying pan into the fire".

Henderson, Sept. 26, 1904.

SAVES TWO FROM DEATH

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Y., "but when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

Southern Station in Charlotte. Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 18.—The Southern Railway has changed its plans in regard to remodeling its passenger station in this city and will erect a handsome new building to cost $55,000 or $60,000.

BROKE INTO HIS HOUSE.

S. Le Quinn, of Cavendish, Vt., was robbed of his customary health by invasion of chronic constipation. When Dr. King's New Life Pills broke into his house, his trouble was arrested and now he's entirely cured. They're guaranteed to cure. 25c. at all druggists.

CONFESSIONS OF A PRIEST.

Rev. John S. Cox, of Wake, Ark., writes: "For 12 years I suffered from Yellow Jaundice, and consulted a number of physicians and tried all sorts of medicines, but got no relief. Then I began the use of Electric Bitters and feel that I am now cured of a disease that had me in its grasp for twelve years." If you want a reliable medicine for Liver and Kidney trouble, stomach disorder or general debility, get Electric Bitters. It is guaranteed by all druggists. Only 50 cents.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Some squibs of interest we have gathered with our Paste-Pot and Shears.

What a fix the Democratic party would be in if its leaders followed the Japan plan of committing suicide when they make mistakes.—Shelby Aurora.

A Democratic member of the last legislature informed me the first question that was asked when a man or company made application to be incorporated as a place to manufacture whiskey is: "Is he Democratic?" So much for the Watts law.—S. A. Lawrence.

Two years in the State, six months in the county and four months in the precinct next preceding the election is the requirement for voting. If the voter has not lived in the precinct four months prior to the election then he must go to the precinct from which he removed and register and vote.—Union Republican.

FOREPAUGH AND SELLS BROTHERS CIRCUS

Will exhibit in Raleigh Friday, November 5th—Grand Street Parade.

Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Circus will exhibit in Raleigh on November 4th, afternoon and night. This is the largest and best circus that will visit this city this year. It will furnish wholesome fun for the young and old. Among some of the special features in its menagerie will be found a collection of fourteen living, full grown Polar bears. The first appearance in America of the Bruin Leasons, the famous French family of seven equestrians of both sexes, introducing their commingled bareback and Four-in-hand Park Brake acrobatic performances, deserves special mention, as the only entirely new circus feature known to the arena for the past fifty years. The achievements of Diavolo in "looping the loop" on a bicycle is a dare-devil accomplishment that has given him world-wide prominence. Prodigious Porthos, the French professional expert, who on his cycle leaps across a chasm 50 feet wide, is a parallel feature. Cyclone, spirally ascending a wheel the perpendicular inside of "The Devil's Chimney," surpasses all previous whirling wonders. Mons. Hubert is still another French sensationist, who also makes his first appearance in this country. In one of his equestrian acts lifting a sulky by its trails, he leaps there-with into the bare back of his horse, and in another, after performing remarkable feats of jugglery in a park cart, drawn around the race course, he finishes by balancing the cart on his chin.

Religious Training in the Home.

Writing in the November Delinquent on "The Christian Spirit in the Home," Mrs. Theodore W. Birney says: "The object of religious training is to enable the child to recognize the divine laws and to learn to obey them. These are not matters of creeds and doctrines, which vary and bear more or less the human imprint, but are the messages that we hear when we listen to the inner voice. Even young children can be made to understand that this voice is not one we hear with the physical sense of hearing, but it is a voice that speaks to our minds and souls, and the more earnestly we listen and long to do its slightest bidding the clearer will be its message to us. Christian life in the home requires that the child should be taught right, that he should be given, as one author expresses it, 'right primary ideas on the great relations and duties of life.' In no way can he obtain these as through the conversation and conduct of his elders."

November Designer.

The Designer for November presents advance styles for winter for adults and little folks. Women who contemplate making Christmas gifts for their friends will find this number of the Designer to be a fund of fancy-work information. In entertainments are offered a novel drill, "The Red Man's Thanksgiving," and "An Archaeological Party." Ida Innes contributes a pretty love story, "In the World of Today," and W. Livingston Larned a droll tale for the tots, "A Transferred Thanksgiving." The three departments edited by the readers of the Designer: "What Women Are Doing," "The Mothers' Club" and "Helps Along the Way" are far from being the least interesting part of the magazine, and give to it a pleasant personal element.

Democrats Have Small Crowd at Garner

Messrs. J. T. Broughton, J. J. Bernard, Sentelle and Ellington, Democratic candidates in Wake county, spoke at Garner Saturday night. A gentleman who was present told us that there was 15 white men and 12 colored and 14 boys present to hear these speakers. There was no enthusiasm among the audience or speakers either, still the Democrats will call it a big Democratic Rally.

Watson Will not be at Tarboro the 27th. We are in receipt of a letter from Capt. J. B. Floyd, stating that there was such a demand for Mr. Watson in the West, that he had agreed to release him from his date at Tarboro, Oct. 27th, for that reason.

Meekins in Lenoir County.

Hon. I. M. Meekins, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, will address the citizens of Lenoir county, in the Court House, at Kinston, on Nov. 3rd, at 1 o'clock.

ORCHARDS IN FULL BLOOM.

Peculiar Virginia Phenomena Attributed to a Recent Hailstorm.

Lauray, Va., Oct. 16.—A most remarkable phenomenon is to be witnessed on Mill Creek, in this county, where the large orchards of Charles W. Painter, James L. Grubbs, and William Mayes, and other farmers are in full bloom. Every tree is clothed in blossoms as in the month of April or May. Most of the trees are apple, but fruit of every other kind shows the same strange activity.

This singular departure from the course of nature is attributed to an unprecedented hail storm that visited that section a month ago and completely denuded every kind of tree of fruit and foliage. It is believed that with the leaves all gone the energies of nature were bent in another direction, and the process of fruit and leaf-bearing that, under normal conditions, would have been renewed in the spring, is already begun. The owners of the orchards despair of a crop next year.

DEAD AT A DEBATE.

Two Young Men Arrested, Charged With Killing H. B. Moore.

Dunn, N. C., Oct. 17.—One of the bloodiest homicides in the history of this section of the county occurred last Saturday night at Spring Hill school house, which is about four miles west of here. H. B. Moore was stabbed and cut to death by J. Sidney Harris and Wiley Lucas, being cut in several places on his head, face and neck.

Ministers Determined to Vote for Roosevelt.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8.—A stormy debate was caused in the Rocky River Methodist Conference to day by a paragraph appearing in the report of the committee on temperance, which was construed by some of the pastors as binding the members of the conference to vote the Prohibition ticket. While the majority expressed themselves as in sympathy with the Prohibition movement, they showed they were determined to vote for Roosevelt.

Richard J. Marston, Junior, is Killed by J. D. Homer.

Menderson, N. C., Oct. 17.—Mr. Richard J. Marston, Jr., died about 8 o'clock Saturday night after the most excruciating suffering. Death resulted from a blow struck by J. D. Homer with the handle of his axe when Mr. Marston went to his place of business (Mr. Owen Davis' warehouse) to cowl him for insulting his father, Mr. Richard Marston, Sr. Homer is in jail.

The Asheville News says:

"Judge Parker's mother says she used the switch on 'Alton' when a boy. Doubtless, for Judge Parker was apparently brought up in the way he should go."

And on November 8th Judge Parker will get another "switching," and he can go back to Esopus, the way he should go.

Dead Body Found Standing.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 16.—Jas. Cosgrove, aged 60, missing from his home in Frostburg some hours, was found last night standing upright, dead, in a large water tank at the engine-house at Eckhart mines. His hands were clasping the intake pipe.

Killed in Railroad Yard.

Winston-Salem, N. C., Oct. 18.—Albert Clement, an industrious colored man, was knocked down and killed by a box car in the Southern yard here to-day.

I Know One Sure Remedy

Remedy for all ailments. Its name is PAIN-EXPELLER.

From our Point of View.

One of the strangest things in the world to us is that we still have among us those who would fight the civil war over again and those who would endeavor to add fuel to the flames that were kindled between the North and the South. Great men, patriotic men, men who are loyal to the government, make every effort that lies in their power to bury beyond the hope of a resurrection, the memory of the breach that once existed between our sister states that lie beyond the "Mason and Dixon Line" and the fair Sunny Southland that gave us birth. "Bill Arp," who in all probability was the best posted man in the South, was one of those free-living rebels who never forgot nor forgave those noble-hearted men who buried the hatchet and sought to heal the bleeding wound in the days of reconstruction, or if he ever forgave them we find no record to show that he ever quit abusing the North till his form lay cold in death.

All honor, we say, to those patriotic men who are as noble and grand after a crushing defeat, as when flushed with the glory of victory.

Those who nourish hatred and animosity and allow them to find a home in their bosoms, are not worthy of the protection of the laws of this glorious republic of ours, nor are they loyal to the flag that, "In triumph doth wave, o'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."—Clinton Caucasian.

Cured

At 70 of Heart Disease Contracted

During Civil War—Veteran Grateful.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effectuated Cure.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, hope for all sufferers in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which we know from watching hundreds of cases and from the letters of grateful sufferers, will cure where all else has failed. It is not only a wonderful cure for weak and diseased hearts, but it is a blood tonic, a regulator of the heart's action, and the most effective treatment ever formulated for improving the circulation of the blood.

"During the Civil War I contracted heart disease, and in 1868, while living in the grand old town of Lexington, Va., I grew so much worse, I left there with my wife to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Kirby, at Roanoke, Va. While I said nothing to anyone I never expected to live to return to the dear old town. On reaching Mrs. Kirby's she insisted I should try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I procured a few bottles of it, also the Nerve and Tonic. After using one or two bottles, I felt some improvement, and I despaired of ever being better, but my faithful wife insisted on keeping it up, which I did. Improvement soon began in earnest and I took in all fifteen or sixteen bottles. I was restored to perfect health and while I am 70 years old, I am comparatively a boy. You see, are a benefactor, and I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to suffering humanity."—J. L. SLAUGHTER, Salem, Va.

A HAPPY MOTHER

WATERBURY, TEXAS, May 16, 1902.

Before my baby was born I was in great agony. I was just able to be about but just as soon as I began to take Wine of Cardui, which had been recommended to me, I felt much better. In fact I felt that if it had not been for this medicine I would not have been strong enough to live through childbirth. It was made comparatively easy by taking your medicine for four weeks before baby came. Wine of Cardui restored my health as I took it two months afterwards. I cannot speak too highly of Wine of Cardui and I am glad to see it.

Mrs. C. E. Moore
Treasurer, Young Mothers' Club.

Wine of Cardui is a powerful tonic which acts on the generative organs of women, regulating menstruation and giving tone and strength to the organs which inflammation and weakness have affected. It cures nineteen out of every twenty cases of bearing-down pains or ovarian trouble. Wine of Cardui cures barrenness and aids the mother in conserving her strength for the ordeal of childbirth. After that event the Wine prevents dangerous flooding and helps mothers to a quick recovery. Wine of Cardui is the one medicine a mother should use before and after childbirth. All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.
